In 1875 the mission asked for an appropriation of $5,000 to buy a site and erect a hospital and residence for the physician. This request was also readily granted; $4,000 of the amount needed being assured by the New York Branch, $500 by the Philadelphia Branch, and $500 by the Baltimore Branch. The first lot was purchased, and work begun upon the building in August, 1876. The building is ninety-eight feet by fifty-seven. It is a substantial two-storied house, in every way suitable for its destined purpose. It contains in the lower story drawing-room, library, and dining-room for the resident physician; drugroom, surgery, special ward-rooms, examining room, and waiting room for patients; with room for native assistants. The upper story contains three bedrooms, connected with the physician s residence, two large ward-rooms, bath-rooms, rooms for nurses, etc. Upon the occasion of the dedication of this building a large number of prominent persons were present, both Europeans and natives. Mr. Delano, United States Consul, presided. His Excellency the Fantai, accompanied by several Commissioners of the Fohkien Province, were present. These remained throughout the whole of the opening ceremony, and manifested considerable interest in the details of the building, as also in its charitable object. Thus, under such favorable auspices, was the medical work of the Woman s Foreign Missionary Society inaugurated in Foochow. The dispensary is open daily for transient patients. These come in large numbers, so that the...
