Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Strike Made by Boyce s Big Weeklies A glance at the presentation page will reveal the fact that the publisher has not issued this volume for revenue only, nor for protection, but principally for the good of the fraternity. Close inspection of the tints and texts of the turning leaves, which have been pressed into use for better preservation, may prove most pleasant and profitable to the reader; pleasant because the artistic illustrations bring to mind pictures of free out-door recreation, and profitable because business may be increased by adopting the suggestions made so plain that even he who runs may read. It was one of the modern philosophers who asserted that nothing succeeds like success, and judged by this standard the publisher and presenter of the present volume is truly a successful man. He flourishes a Blade more popular and powerful than the ancient blade of Damascus, and no publisher of the present day can show a brighter or better Ledger than the one which comes from his office. Mr. Boyce might not be willing to stand forth and make this just claim in his own behalf, but the editor of this work merely admits a well-known fact and violates no confidence in disclosing this open secret to all the world and the rest of mankind. Having given credit to whom credit is due in this respect, the writer hastens to acknowledge his obligations to several of the standard authorities on American field sports and fishing for material aid in preparing this volume. To Isaac McLellan, the poet-sportsman, due credit should be given for most of the stanzas introducing the various descriptive sketches...
