Orient BlackSwan, New Delhi, India, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. A fairy tale romance and a blueprint for anyone who wants to venture into social service, this autobiography of Sadhanatai Amte a woman who chose to marry a frenzied man and a dreamer, Baba Amte is also a tale of her willing surrender in love without the slightest loss of her identity. It is a document of the dreams they dreamt for humankind and their struggle to put life into them. These memoirs present the portrait of a woman beside a man; a perfect consort who has the ability to tame the living storm, Baba Amte. Written without a stance, the distinctive simplicity of this transparent narrative, as compared to other similar writings by women, it has the power to stir its readers with its salty sea-air tang, and the warmth of a fruitful mad pursuit of a goalat once personal and impersonal. A book like this a saga of suffering, hopes, tensions and success, as well as the thrill of pleasure of work the two experienced while pursuing their goal will serve as the beacon of light for posterity, and as a model in human relationships. Printed Pages: 296.
