Reviews

This is basically the finest publication i actually have go through till now. We have read and i also am confident that i am going to likely to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Biennial Report of the North Carolina Historical Commission Classification and Arrangement of Papers The most immediate and practical work of this division is the rough classification of all papers received, the careful chronological arrangement of these papers in permanent form as time permits, and the administration of our whole collections for the daily use of students. Our collections, totaling over five hundred thousand pieces, have been thus kept available. In addition to this work, which cannot be set forth in statistics, the following specific work has been done: State Administration Records Two hundred and eighty-one papers were filed in the papers of the Secretary of State., Three hundred and seventeen papers were filed in the papers of the State Treasurer. Legislative Papers for the years 1790-1792 were chronologically arranged. Six volumes were arranged in the papers of the Attorney-General. Journals of the Literary Board 1826-1867, and Letterbooks of the Superintendent of Public Instruction 1868-1906, were arranged. County Records Of wills, 2137 were alphabetically arranged in the papers of Chowan, Wayne, Tyrrell, Jones, and Rowan Counties. Material from 35 counties, totaling 203 volumes, cases and bundles, was properly arranged. This material is listed in detail under Accessions below. The whole collection of county records, totaling 1177 cases and volumes, was carefully labeled, numbered serially, and indexed by a card finding-list.
