Thule, 2008. soft. Book Condition: New. Un vetusto general ha perdido su guerra y la busca desesperado, pero no la encuentra por ninguna parte. A todo el mundo le pregunta si la ha visto, y a todos trata de convencer de lo necesario que es encontrarla, pero nadie le entiende. Paseando con su caballo mar adentro, topa con un almirante, y enseguida comparten sus pesadumbres y se entienden a la perfección. Las guerras, como las peleas, son cosa de dos. ¿Qué pasaría si alguien con ganas de guerra no encontrara a nadie contra quien pelear? Una fábula irónica sobre la guerra y aquellos que siempre necesitan un enemigo al que enfrentarse. Las ilustraciones, con grandes espacios diáfanos como el océano o los campos en primavera, contrastan la idea del personaje con la belleza de la tierra. Unos pocos elementos de imagen construyen una historia basada en opuestos: un barco, un caballo, los militares, el pueblo. Los dibujos fueron realizados a pluma y tinta china, pintados con tintas de colores y posteriormente se retocaron digitalmente.
