Children grow up not knowing who their mother is. A father has the burden of two on his back, and all the while, they are not alone. This true life story depicts the pain, confusion and other emotions of a family torn apart by situations as they go through their separate lives for ten years. It tells the untold stories, shows the unseen tears, voices the unheard cries, and reveals the pain covered by smiles. You are about to embark on an unforgettable journey of unbelievable secrets and wounds, and a life-changing revelation of healing. This is a testimony that shows that despite how hopeless a situation is, it is not beyond repair, a story that brings joy to the weeping heart and assures that there is joy around the corner. Contained in this book are also lessons that everybody needs to learn. You might want to read it now About me? OKI am on a journey to touch the lives I contact, even if it means ignoring my personal ego. My aim is to set people free from the bondages that hold them down. I see the tears around me, and I intend to dry them. At age 16, I present to you my second book. Drawing the lessons I've learnt in my life so far, I offer help to everyone I can. You just might be one of them.Other books by this author: Music to the Soul.
