

Heartbreak - The Political Memoir Of A Feminist Militant

By DWORKIN, Andrea

U.S / Basic Books - Perseus Books, 2002. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Controversial feminist, known for her militant anti-porn stance. Always innovative, often provocative, and frequently polarizing, the author has carved out a unique position as one of the women's movement's most influential figures, from the early days of consciousness-raising to the 'post-feminist' present. Dworkin tells the story of how she evolved from a childhood lover of music and books into a college activist, embraced her role as an international advocate for women, and emerged as a maverick thinker at odds with both the liberal left and the mainstream women's movement. A 1st edition, with its dustwrapper, in new condition. (213 pages & 16 pages of perface).
